Big Day Tomorrow.

One of the biggest crowds that has been in Anderson in a long time is expected tomorrow. Senators Tillman and Lattimore, and Congressman Aiken and Solicitor Boggs will speak at Buena Vista Park. This combination will certainly interest the people.

Dr. Orr For The Senate.

Dr. S. M. Orr is announced as a candidate for the State Senate in opposition to Mr. Jno. E. Breazeale whom it had been stated was slated for election without opposition. It has been known for several days past that tremendous pressure was being brought to bear upon Dr. Orr from people all over the county to make the race. From the moment his name was first mentioned, the suggestion took like wildfire and assumed such force that he could not resist.

He has received the most flattering assurances of support from every class, and his entry will infuse quite a little ginger into the race. It is needless to say that Dr. Orr stands on a platform that the voters of the county will endorse, for his known conservatism and good business judgment together with his strong personal magnetism are a platform in themselves.

NEW LUMBER CONCERN.

Messrs. F. J. Martin and D. S. and E. P. Vandiver have formed a partnership and will open a lumber business on the Blue Ridge road. They have rented the lot near the old Shoe Factory at the foot of Depot street. The Blue Ridge Railway will put in the necessary side tracks and the company will begin at once to erect the necessary lumber sheds.

Campaign Opens Saturday.

The County Campaign will open at 2 p. m. next Saturday, August 4, at 2 p. m.

The time for candidates to file their pledges will expire next Friday, August 3, at 12 o'clock. If you want to run for office you must do something at once.

NEW FERTILIZER PLANT.

The Anderson Phosphate & Oil Co. will build another fertilizer plant. On account of the scarcity of labor in Anderson it is said the new plant will go to Greenwood.

TO ATTEND ASSOCIATION.

Many Anderson people went to Honea Path yesterday to attend the Sunda Baptist Association.

Company E to Go to Chickamauga.

The Palmetto Riflemen, officially known as Company E, 1st S. C. Infantry, are getting everything in shape for their big encampment to be held in Chickamauga Park, Georgia.

The company will leave Anderson August 10 and will be under the command of the captain, P. K. McCully, Jr.

Chickamauga—yes, we remember the place and remember the hot summer days that we spent there in 1898 when we were there with Company C, 1st S. C. Vol. Infantry. We were there waiting to be sent to Cuba to help wipe off every Spaniard on that island.

After remaining in Chickamauga several weeks the 1st regiment was sent to Jacksonville to get in line with the other Regiments going over to Cuba. But soon after arriving there the Regiment was sent back to Columbia and mustered out of service.

We will never forget the march from Lytle Station to our camping place in Chickamauga Park, when dust seemed to be knee deep and we were starved for the want of water. We don't believe we will be held accountable for the cursing we did on this march.

Feeds The Hungry Printers.

Rev. R. Herbert Jones brought to The Intelligencer office Wednesday eight tomatoes of a size we have never run across before. The largest weighed two pounds and four ounces. Mr. Jones is not only a good preacher but one of the best gardeners in the county. This is not the first time that he has taken the prize on raising vegetables. Mr. Jones has probably noticed the hungry look of the editor, as did some unknown gentleman who quietly left a couple of cabbage in the front end of the office a few days ago.

DEATH OF MRS. FREEMAN.

She was about 65 years of age. Her husband died about three years ago. She leaves several children. The funeral will take place this morning at 11 o'clock at Roberts' Church.

Gives up to Die.

J. Spiegel, 1261 N. Virginia St., Evansville, Ind., writes: "For over five years I was troubled with kidney and bladder affections which caused me much pain and worry. I lost flesh and was all run down and a year ago had to abandon work entirely. I had tried the best physicians who did me no good and I was practically given up to die. Foley's Kidney Cure was recommended and I took it. It gave me great relief and after taking the second bottle I was entirely cured." Evans Pharmacy.

The Allen-Kind Wedding.

On the evening of July 25, 1906, the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Allen, was the scene of a very pretty wedding. The bride, Miss Eudora Virginia, and Mr. John Kind were united in the holy bonds of matrimony by Father Murphy, of Greenwood, S. C.

The entire house was charmingly decorated for the event.

The parlor formerly the ceremony of green and white. In one corner of the room a lovely bower of fresh foliage, banked up by a beautiful mass of green and white and at nine o'clock the groom, accompanied by his groomsmen, Mr. and Mrs. Kind, entered the room. The bride, Miss Eudora Virginia, was escorted by her father, Mr. J. B. Allen, and took their stand beneath this bower, to be joined by the bride, accompanied by her sister and maid of honor, Miss Stark Allen, where the beautiful and impressive ceremony was performed in the presence of about sixty guests.

The hall and dining room were beautifully decorated in pink and white, while the sitting room and piazza were tastefully arranged in green and white.

On the front piazza a delightful punch was served for the guests, as they entered, and shortly after the ceremony the guests retired to the dining room where they were served with refreshments corresponding to the color scheme of the room, pink and white.

During the evening the contest between the competition for the bride's bouquet was an interesting feature, Miss Keys Dardin being the successful young lady.

Very many useful and ornamental presents were received, all showing the high esteem in which the young couple are held.

Mr. Kind holds a good position with the Sullivan Hardware Company, and is very popular. His bride is one of Anderson's highly respected young ladies.

Mr. and Mrs. Kind will make their home at the Electric Hotel on Church street.

Letter From Uncle Dock Owen.

Mr. Editor: In your paper of the 25th inst., you mention the death of an old Confederate comrade, John Lewis, who died in the county home. Forty-four years ago John little thought he would die in the poor house and be laid to rest in the Fotters Field. Likely, not a tear was shed for him. What a shame men who fought, suffered and hungered for their country for four years, and in that same battle they were the old heroes are fast answering to the last roll call and in a few more years there will be none left. I beg to differ with you, for there will be men fifty years hence who were in the great struggle. Only yesterday I heard a gray haired man tell me he charged the federal at Brandy Station and the awful havoc among the Yankees. My God, why do men lie so. He is only 51 years old; consequently he was born in 1855 and was ten years old in 1865. Yet he says he fought at the Station August 21st, 1862. No, Mr. Editor, there will be many men here and maybe drawing a pension.

I am growing old and I know the troubles, trials and tribulations I have underwent and may have to wind up my earthly career like comrade John Lewis in the "poor house." What mortifies my feelings so much is to witness the last sad rites over some big like who went to Columbia two or three days after that hell-bound Sherman passed through and come home to boast "Ma and Betsy killed the Bear." The simon pure vote will be dead before long, just as you say, but the history readers will be here for years to come and tell their offspring how they fought for the Red, White and Blue. Uncle Dock.

Anderson Has Them, Too.

The Florence Daily Times says: "A novel spectacle was seen upon the streets Monday morning in the form of a party of negro women doing my earthly care like comrade John Lewis in the 'poor house.' What mortifies my feelings so much is to witness the last sad rites over some big like who went to Columbia two or three days after that hell-bound Sherman passed through and come home to boast 'Ma and Betsy killed the Bear.' The simon pure vote will be dead before long, just as you say, but the history readers will be here for years to come and tell their offspring how they fought for the Red, White and Blue. Uncle Dock."

Aldermen Can't Sell City Supplies.

At the request of some people who want to know the law as to Aldermen selling the city supplies, we give it below, which has been incorporated as Section 223 of the Criminal Code of South Carolina:

"An Act making it unlawful for any municipal officer to take any contract for work for the municipal corporation of which he is an officer, and to provide a penalty for violation of this Act."

Section 1. Be it enacted by the general assembly of the State of South Carolina, That from and after the passage of this act no municipal officer shall take a contract to perform work or furnish material for the municipal corporation of which he is an officer, and no such officer shall receive compensation on any contract for said purpose. Provided that in cities having thirty thousand inhabitants such contracts may be allowed by the unanimous vote of city council. Upon each specific contract such vote to be taken by yeas and nays and entered upon council's journals.

Section 2. That any person violating the provision of this Act shall be guilty of misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by fine or imprisonment in the discretion of the court before whom such conviction is had.

Another Good Man Gone Wrong.

He neglected to take Foley's Kidney Cure at the first signs of kidney trouble, hoping it would wear away, and was soon a victim of Bright's disease. There is danger in delay, but if Foley's Kidney Cure is taken when the symptoms will disappear, the kidneys are strengthened and you are soon sound and well. A. R. Case of Morgantown, Ind., had to get up ten or twelve times in the night, and had a severe backache and a weak head. He says, and was cured by Foley's Kidney Cure. Evans Pharmacy.

The County Democracy.

The county democratic executive committee met at the Court House Monday at 12 o'clock, Chairman Jno. C. Hood presiding. The managers of election for the coming primary were appointed.

A new club called Concrete was reported organized in Brushy Creek township.

A motion was passed that the rules governing the closing of the registration lists five days before election be sent to the different clubs. The lists will close at midnight on August 22d.

The campaign meeting at Townville was cancelled.

The committee adjourned to meet on August 30th, at 12 o'clock, to tabulate and declare the results of the primary election of this county.

The Dam Across Savannah.

The Charleston News and Courier of Saturday says:

Mr. E. C. Meschaine, who is described as a planter resident on the banks of the Savannah near Lowndesville in the upper edge of Abbeville County, is earnestly protesting against the erection of a dam across the Savannah river several miles above his plantation, on the ground that the Savannah is at that point still a navigable stream. We have no wish to get mixed up in Mr. Meschaine's fight on the Savannah River Power Company, but we respectfully suggest that if the Savannah is scarcely navigable as its mouth, as shown by the collision between the Chattahoochee and the City of Memphis, requires a considerable stretch of the imagination to conceive it as open to the passage of ships fully two hundred and fifty miles from the point where it empties into the Atlantic.

For Those Not Progressive.

For the benefit of those citizens who live amongst us—the unprogressive kind—we print the following, which is being urged upon the citizens of Birmingham:

"If your store front, residence or fence is dull or dingy, have it painted. If your awning is old, torn or faded, get a new one. If your sidewalk, fence or gate needs repairing, fix it. Destroy the young weeds that are starting on your property and on your neighbors' property. If your advertising sign is old or faded, take it down and paint it. Resolve never to throw paper in the streets. Burn all the rubbish possible; allow no junk to pile up on the streets, alleys or vacant lots. Promise not to spit on the sidewalks. Organize a block improvement society and allow no weeds to grow on sidewalks. Get your milk man, grocery man and express man to have their wagons painted. Irrespective of the size of your home, make your lawn the finest. Get a garbage can and use it. Sod your sidewalks where curbing has been moved out."

At the meeting of the State Press Association at Charleston last week, the Association presented Mr. C. C. Langston, formerly Editor of The Intelligencer, with a gold fob and chain as a mark of its esteem, and elected him a life member of the Association.

The following is what the News and Courier has to say about this beautiful testimonial to Mr. Langston's popularity and faithfulness:

"A beautiful as well as an impressive incident after the banquet was the presentation of a handsome watch chain and fob by Major Hemphill to Mr. C. C. Langston, who has been the secretary of the association for thirteen years."

"The presentation generally fits the crime," said Major Hemphill.

"This world is full of beauty. As other things above, And if we do our duty, It would be full of love."

"Mr. Langston was so surprised and touched he asked to be excused from making a speech, merely bowing his thanks."

"The fob was inscribed 'C. C. L., from the P. A. S. 1906.' The members of the Association greatly regret Mr. Langston's retirement from active newspaper work and trust his health will soon permit him taking up his pen again."

Banks offered the following: "Resolved, That on account of his conspicuously faithful services to this association as secretary for a period of thirteen years, the South Carolina State Press Association hereby elects and declares that C. C. Langston is selected an honorary member for life."

Mr. Norment offered the following: "There is no more strong attribute to be found within the scope of intuition than the sympathy of the fraternal code that binds together kindred spirits. With this is linked inseparably appreciation of service and affection of deepest interest in all that concerns each and every member of our Association. It is the duty of our committee to voice the sentiments of our entire Association, be it resolved, therefore, that we do not need to express to our brother, C. C. Langston, who for twelve years has been our valued and efficient secretary, our sincere regret at the necessary severing of these official relations. He does not need to be told that he carries with him our sympathy and affection in the reasons that make his resignation necessary. With the prayer that he will soon be again numbered among our active workers, we wish him health, happiness and prosperity."

A Taste For Dogs.

Mark Twain, apostrophe of Decoration Day, talked of war and of the hardships and privations of sieges.

"A Frenchman," he said, "called the day on a lady who had two dogs. They were very little brutes and when they came near him, the man pushed them out of the way with his foot."

"I perceive," he said, "the lady replied that you are not very fond of dogs."

"The man started in surprise. 'I am not fond of dogs,' he exclaimed. 'Why, indeed?
